ALI RCHAM

EXPERIENCE

Hello World 🌍! I'm Ali Rcham, a student in technology electric science. I've been an enthusiast of programming my whole life. IMHO, programming is like a game of chess with a machine! I'm interested in web dev, mobile dev, and also desktop dev. I'm looking forward to learning more about being a full-stack developer! 😊 You can find me on GitHub and LinkedIn. I'm also a freelancer and a student of IBN SINA high school. You will download my CV by clicking the button in the top. Beside, if you're interested in a project or you want me to build one.

EDUCATION

I'm studying in 1-bac science technology electric
